Our Yearbook is Dedicated to Mr. Stephen Knoblock

Mr. Stephen Knoblock has been a part of the Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish family for over twenty years.

During his time with Mount Carmel, he has dedicated countless hours to the church and school, creating a wonderful music program and sharing his talents with all the students and parishioners.

Since we started at Mount Carmel he has been there teaching and encouraging us to embrace music; whether in music class, school plays or pageants, glee club, Birthday Masses, or at Church on Saturday and Sunday. Without Mr. Knoblock, Mass on Sunday would not be half as beautiful as his music makes it. School plays and pageants would not turn out as wonderfully as they do.

The Class of 2016 would like to thank you for all your effort and devotion, a day does not go by that you are unnoticed or unappreciated.

We will miss you tremendously.

*Sincerely,
The Class Of 2016*

Dear Graduates,

“Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours: yours are the eyes through which to look at Christ’s compassion to the world, yours are the feet with which he is to go about doing good, and yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now.”

~ St. Teresa of Avila

You are here today because of the great love and sacrifices of your parents. You are here today because of your teachers’ dedication to sharing knowledge and values with you. Where you will go in the future will be because of your choices, your efforts, your ability to absorb the caring, knowledge and principals taught to you by your parents and teachers.

Choose to participate actively in your own life. Every day you’ll be faced with choices; between reality and fantasy, between the path of least resistance and a path fraught with obstacles. In choosing, keep in mind that we don’t learn patience and courage on the path of least resistance. Our greatest lessons are learned through adversity.

The world you are entering has much that is wrong with it, but much that is right as well. You are in it - be part of it. Make your world and the people who touch it happier, more vibrant, a more caring, sharing space. Your own aliveness comes from involvement with others. To LIVE in the world you need to reach out, to contribute your eyes to see, your ears to hear by sharing willingly your gifts and talents and by nurturing their growth. Each day is an opportunity to grow and learn and reaffirm your uniqueness in a world that needs you very much.

As you leave Our Lady of Mt. Carmel you do not go alone - our love, prayers and best wishes go with you and most importantly take with you the knowledge that you are never alone. God is with you always, watching over you, guiding you, awaiting anxiously your petition for guidance. The more you take to heart this truth, the stronger you will believe it.

My congratulations to all of you for all that you have become. Look forward to all of your tomorrows with hope and strength, knowing you will, if you seek God’s help to make all the right decisions.

In conclusion - in this Year of Mercy, I pray that our merciful and compassionate Lord will bestow on you and your families His choicest blessings.

So farewell - never goodbye - because you will always be in my heart.

God bless you.

Lovingly,

Sr. M. Stephen, RDC

Dear Graduating Class,

You, you, you, you, you, you, you....

Although I have much still to learn in life, one thing I have learned and try to live daily (many times unsuccessfully) is that focusing on yourself will never lead to the greatest success, fulfillment, and ultimately happiness. Society and the hoopla around graduation encourages us to look inward, but this sort of belly button gazing will never lead us to the heights that life has in store for us.

So, instead of focusing on what will come next for “you”, focus on how you will make life better for someone else. Find a way to start serving others wherever you are. Instead of grasping for your own dreams, focus on how you can help others achieve their dreams. No matter what path you choose, the gifts you have been given are meant to be shared, and we as a society need you at your best to be at our best. Although the message of graduation can be very individualistic, the simple truth is that we are all in this life together. We depend on each other and we are depending on you.

There’s one more thing. While we look to the past for guidance, and dream about the future, we live in the present. Wherever you are on that road to fame and fortune, always remember to be thankful for what you have. Treat every day as a gift, a blessing. The Roman statesman Cicero once said “Gratitude is not only the greatest of virtues, but a parent of all the others.” So if you are truly grateful for what you have in life, you’ll be a better son or daughter, sibling or friend. You’ll always be there for those who have been there for you. You’ll have a stronger faith. And you’ll have the patience to make it through some of life’s most trying times—you know, like the advisory schedule.

So remember to count your blessings and happiness will surely come your way. If I may paraphrase Shakespeare, true happiness is not about the destination, it’s about the journey.

Congratulations to all of “you!” What will “you” do now?

Go and make a difference for all of “us!”

Sincerely,

Anne C. Donnellan

PROVERBS 22:6

Dear Members of the Class of 2016:

Congratulations on graduating from your Catholic elementary school. This is a joyous Occasion for you and your family and friends, and I am proud of you and happy to add my prayerful best wishes to this well-earned celebration.

You can take pride in the hard work that led to this important milestone in your young lives. With every passing year, each grade, each new skill learned, and each challenge to overcome brings you closer to becoming an accomplished young adult. You are blessed to have the love and support of your parents, guardians, and other family members who, in some cases, make great sacrifices to give you the gift of a Catholic education, opening a world of opportunity to you. Please be sure to take some time to think about why this has been so important to them, and be sure to say "thank you." Let them know how grateful you are for all you have learned and for the guidance you have received during these years we have shared with you.

There were, no doubt, teachers, counselors, principals, and coaches who played decisive roles in helping you get to this point. They challenged, inspired, and consoled you, serving as exemplary Christian role models who will be remembered over the years to come.

Most of all, remember Jesus - our greatest teacher - was and is with you every step of the way and will continue to accompany you throughout your life no matter what challenges you face. I pray that you always feel His presence and remain faithful to the Gospel values you have been taught.

Your Catholic education has prepared you not only for high school, but for a life of faith and compassionate service to others, remembering that the Lord's love for you is constant and unchanging. With His help, you will become all you were meant to be and be able to face the future with confidence and grace, knowing that He is always near.

With a promise of my continued prayers and wishing you much success, I remain,

Faithfully in Christ,

Friendship

*Friends are always there.
You can count on them for anything.
They show you that they care.
You can turn to them for everything.
They don't judge and are never bad to you.
They cheer you up when you are sad.
They always have a shoulder for you to cry on.
And are there to give you a lift.
They end your darkness like the break of dawn.
The miracle of friendship is the greatest gift.*

Isabella Gray

*A friend is someone who is always there for you.
Someone who you can trust, share secrets with,
Make memories, understands you,
Someone who knows how to have fun,
Honest, loyal, kind, funny, generous, understanding.
They always have your back,
Always there when you need them,
Always there to support you and cheer you on,
Always there to be your companion if the world is against you.*

Olivia Poirier

Friendship is an amazing thing, people you can trust and who trust you. Friends are on your side in good and bad times, always there when you need them. I think that everyone needs friends in life. Friends are good. Friends are nice. Friends are necessary to be happy.

La amistad es una cosa increíble, gente que puedes confiar y que confían en ti. Amigos que están en tu lado en las buenas y las malos, siempre están ahí cuando los necesitas. Creo que todo el mundo necesita amigos para ser Feliz.

Gabriel Villatoro Mendoza

*Sometimes when I look upon graduation I am sad that it is done.
But then I reflect on what I've accomplished and what I have become.
I have learned and grown and made memories that will last me an infinity.
and although it's a final goodbye. Mount Carmel has taught me to work to the best of my ability.*

Kylie Feliciano

*Once a friend is made, an eternal bond is made.
When that bond is made, life becomes easy.
You have them by you during hardships.*

*A friend is someone we turn to,
when our spirits need a lift.
A friend is someone we treasure,
for our friendship is a gift.*

*A friend is someone who fills our lives,
with beauty, joy and grace.
And make the world we live in,
a better and happier place.*

*You will be missed but not forgotten.
We had great times Class of 2016.
Even though we're going different ways,
We will always share a special bond.*

True friends come few and far between, and true friends are the ones who aren't mean. True friends are people who you can trust with anything and are the ones who comfort you and make you laugh when you're feeling down. True friends are the ones who don't boast, and they are the ones I care about the most.

Christopher Gilberti

Thomas Palackal

The future is an unpredictable ride. A ride that never ends. A ride that just started.

Life has many difficulties. Health, labor, death

Life has many joys. Friends, family, new beginnings.

You will feel many emotions. Happiness, sadness, anger

Pass on these experiences. Use these experiences. Live off these experiences.

Remember these experiences.

Friendship

Friendship is one of the most important things in my life.
A friend will share many jokes with you.
A friend will always be cheering you on.
It shouldn't matter what you have but who you are.
True friends can totally trust each other.
Count on them to be on your side - even when it's tough.

Michael Bellido

*Friendship is having people who are loyal and who you care about by your side.
Friends are people who will always have your back and accept who you are, no matter what happens.
Friends are people that you can trust, regardless of the situation, and will never judge you.
Friends will help you through your darkest times and will forgive you no matter what.
Friendship is a bond that will never be broken.
They will be with you during the bad times, the good times, and the funny times.*

Sheena Mulla

*Long ago, 10 years exact.
I met some new friends.
They were silly, smart, and happy.
Fast forward 10 years. Here we are.
Lost a few. Made some new friends.
They are by my side.
I'm never alone in this crazy big world.*

Darlene Anselm

Having a friend is like having a sibling that you can trust no matter what.
Friends are people that help you out in life, and help you become a better person.
Friends are loyal, kind, and trustworthy.
Friends are family.

Jibby Olasode

*When I think of the school,
I know it's almost done,
But all my time here I had so much fun.
I really love my mom and dad, too.
They really made me very cool.*

Eisaiah Murphy

The future is a mysterious thing.
It is unpredictable and unending.

There will always be a future whether it is mine or yours, it will always be there.

The future could be good or bad but
I know all of ours will be the best.

It doesn't matter if we are together or not
You are all with me in my heart.

Justin Hotetz

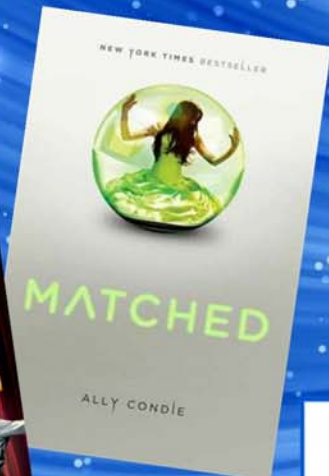

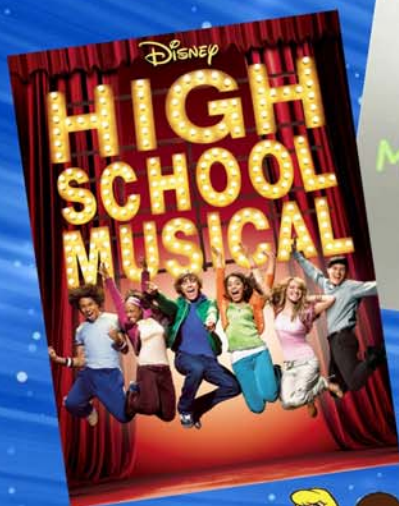

*Grade school years are ending.
Responsibilities are being put on my shoulders.
Amazing new friends await me in high school.
Dedication to school work needed.
Exceptional teachers will help me to succeed.
Ability to work with others, who work with me.
Teachers who help me grow in my faith.
Introduction to a new life is at high school.
Opportunities to learn will help me get through school.
Never forgetting times at Our Lady of Mount Carmel.
I will miss the school bell.*

The Perfect Male Graduate

He stands as tall as Gabriel, has Aidan's hair and Justin's eyes - with Thomas' eye lashes - over Jibby's smile. Humorous like Thomas, but his intelligence and personality is all Christopher.

He is athletic like Eisaiah, with a style and swag that could only be Michael.

This could only be the perfect OLMC male graduate - Class of 2016.

The Perfect Female Graduate

Kylie brings height and fashion to our grad. Darlene supplies the maturity and positive attitude, while Isabella's friendly personality shines through. She has Sheena's intelligence, and is athletic like Lauren, but it is Olivia's creativity that rounds out the perfect OLMC female graduate - Class of 2016.

Virtual Intoxication

Dear Mom & Dad,

Thank you so much for allowing me to go to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. You have made so many sacrifices in order for me to get a better education and meet some great people. You always tell me to be the very best I can possibly be in and out of school. You may not think I am, but I am always grateful for all that you have done in my life. You have made me who I am today and will always guide me throughout my life. I love you both and always will.

Love,
Michael

Thank you, Mom and Dad, for all the support and love. You loved me since the day I was born, even when I was being a little devil. You taught me right from wrong. I appreciate everything you do, even if I don't thank you. Thank you for putting me into Our Lady of Mount Carmel, it's great here. Another thank you for putting me in cheerleading and supporting me through the drama. I love you both.

Love,
Lauren

Thank you for sending me to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and encouraging me to work hard. I know sometimes I can be a pain, but I just want you to know that I'm grateful for everything that you have done for me. I promise I will work hard in high school and college. I won't give up. I also promise that I will make you proud. I love you so much, Mom and Dad.

With lots of love,
Darlene

Words alone cannot express my gratitude towards you. The best decision you ever made for me was sending me to Mount Carmel and you know that. You put up with my endless hours of ridiculousness and constant talking, which not a lot of people can do. I know that whatever I do in life you will always support me and have my back. That's an amazing feeling to have. I love you both. Thank you.

Love,
Kylie

Thank you so much for everything that you do for me! You both have done everything that you can to help me succeed. I appreciate all that you have done to give me a home, food, and most of all, an amazing education. You have been supportive throughout my life and I am very grateful for everything that you have done for me. I wouldn't be the person I am today without you. I know that I've been a handful and I want to thank you for putting up with me. I love you with all my heart.

Love,
Sheena

Dear Mom and Dad,

Thank you for everything you have done for me. Not only have you fed me, clothed me, and sheltered me, but you have spent the extra money for me to go to a Catholic school so that I may grow up like a child of Jesus. Even though we don't always agree, no matter how much I mess up in life, you still love and forgive me. You give me advice when I am unsure of what to do. When I'm having a bad day you will try to cheer me up. I couldn't imagine having anyone else as my parents. Anything I asked for or wanted you have provided for me. I know there is nothing possible that can be done to express how thankful I am. I love you.

*Your son,
Thomas*

Thank you for everything you have done for me since the day I was born. I want to thank you for loving and supporting me. I know you will continue to support me in high school and in college. Thank you! I love you both very much. I am not only graduating because of my school work but also the support you have given. I cannot thank you enough.

*Love,
Aidan*

Thank you Mom and Dad for everything you've done for me. You have let me go to a Catholic school, you let me play sports, and you helped me excel in both. Without you I wouldn't know what to do, you are the best parents I could ask for. Thank you for pushing me to be the best student. Mom and Dad, for all you have done, I can't thank you enough.

*Love,
Justin*

Dear Mom,

Thank you for being there for me, understanding me, and always getting me through those hard times in the past. Because of you, I've become the smart, friendly, loyal, and compassionate young woman that you taught me to be. I'm very excited to start a fresh new beginning in high school, with new friends and a new future. I wouldn't have made it this far without your love and support. So again, thank you so much.

*Love,
Olivia*

I would like to thank you, my parents, for everything you have done for me. Every day, no matter what, we have food on the table and a roof over our heads. You do so many fun things with Billie and me. Almost every day we have something new and exciting to try. Whether it's going on vacation, or out to lunch, it really means a lot to me. I would also like to thank you for enrolling me in Catholic schools so I could get a great education. You've helped me prepare for Confirmation by taking me to church every week; getting my service hours. You have done so much to give me a good life and I am very, very thankful to you for everything.

*Love,
Christopher*

Dear Mom and Dad,

Thank you for working hard every day to provide such a great life for me. Thank you for taking care of me and making my personal growth and happiness your number one priority. You have done so many things to help me be the best person I could be. The best thing you have done for me is send me to Mount Carmel. I have formed many life-long bonds that have shaped my life. I have received a Catholic school education. I have had the opportunity to branch out on my athletic horizon. Being able to have these things in my life has made me into the person I am today. Thank you for raising me so well.

Dad, I feel so lucky to have had you by my side throughout all of my sporting events. You have coached my teams, given me advice on how to better my game, and been my number one supporter through it all.

Mom, I am so blessed to have you to help me with my academics. You always made sure I was on top of all my class assignments, you explained any topic I was having trouble with, and you always encouraged me to try my best and work as hard as I possibly could. Thank you for everything mom and dad. I love you both.

Love,
Isabella

Mamá y papá

Quiero dar las gracias a mis padres por todo su apoyo y sacrificio por mi hermana y por mí. Por estar ahí siempre que he necesitado. Tal vez, no soy el mejor hijo, pero lo intento. Yo sé que un día su apoyo y sacrificio va a darme un buen futuro. Un día voy a devolver todas las cosas que me dieron. Y voy a cuidarlos como lo hizo conmigo.

Los amo,
Gabriel

I want to thank you for all your support and sacrifice for my sister and myself. You have been there whenever I needed. I may not be the best son, but I try. I know that one day your support and sacrifice is going to give me a great future. One day I will pay you back for all that you gave me. I'm going to take care of you, Mom and Dad, like you took care of me.

I love you,
Gabriel

Thank you for always being there for me. Throughout my life you have always protected and guided me. Thank you for giving me a great education here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel School. Without you I could not be the person I am.

Love,
Jibby

When I think of the school,
I know it's almost done,
But all my time here I had so much fun.
I really love my Mom and Dad, too.
They really made me very cool.

Spirit Week

Remember When...

I always took forever to put my stuff away. One day, Mrs. Moliterno left with the class while I was still getting my lunch. Luckily I was found waiting in the parking lot by Mrs. P.

Last year during our trip to Screamin' Parties I saw a huge slide and raced to the top of it. Sliding down, I felt so happy - jumping up & down at the bottom! Ms. D. popped my bubble when she pointed out that my pants were on the floor.

- Thomas

In Pre-K we were playing inside and I accidentally hit one of my friends. Mrs. Moliterno asked if I did it on purpose, or if it was an accident. I said "on purpose" because I didn't know what that meant. My punishment was sitting away from the class at storytime.

During our 7th grade end of year party we had a lip-sync battle. Thomas did Lips are Moving. When he got to "IN YOUR FACE" he scared me so badly I fell backwards out of the chair.

- Christopher

I was afraid of Sheena - she got mad that I was assigned her partner from the previous year. In third grade when we played too intensely with the fake money, Mrs. Penn took it away from us. We replaced it with blocks.

All the times Isabella randomly broke into song.

- Kylie

In 2nd grade, Justin flung jello onto the cafeteria ceiling.

In 4th grade, we built lego towns, trying to figure out who ruled each section.

In 7th grade, we competed in lip-sync battles.

- Sheena

The Halloween ring pop face.

When Thomas got his hand stuck in the chair.

Having the chance to sing at MSG.

- Jibby

Aidan tried to shoot milk out of his nose. He was caught by Mr. McCaffery and ended up in trouble, trying to blame the class. He later told his dad he had done it by accident.

- Justin

In 6th grade we thought the downstairs girls' bathroom was haunted because the water in the sink would start running, even when no one was using it. We even kept a notebook that proved the bathroom was haunted.

In 7th grade we took over the small bounce house at Screamin' Parties. When 6th graders tried to join us we screamed at them to get out.

- Darlene

Remember When...

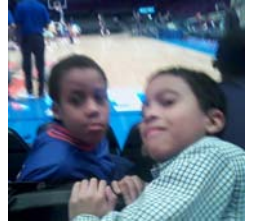

I remember when I first came to OLMC and going to my first Back to School BBQ at DeLuca Park.

And then there was the time Thomas got his hand stuck in the chair. - Michael

Our class went to Club Getaway. We had a tour, and then ate lunch while listening to a DJ - he invited us all to dance. Ethan started dancing and soon the whole class joined in.

- Eisaiah

I remember meeting Jibby. We started talking about soccer and discovered that we like the same team and player. - Gabriel Justina was locked in a closet by Isabella and Sheena.

We changed Mr. McCaffery's computer screen saver to a deviled squirrel.

That really intense lip-sync battle in 7th grade.

Isabella breaking the silence by singing.

OLMC Singing at MSG.

- Lauren

The lip-sync battle in 7th grade, celebrating my 13th birthday with the girls at my house, the walkathon, our trip to MSG to sing "God Bless America" and watch a basketball game, our day at Club Getaway. - Olivia

I remember first entering the school in Pre-K. In 6th grade I dissected a squid at the Maritime Aquarium, then in 7th grade we had a fish tank. - Aidan

I hid under Mr. McCaffery's desk for five minutes while he was grading papers.

The lip-sync battles: Chris falling off his chair; Justina face planting after I accidentally tripped her.

Turning everything into a song "Reaching Back."

Changing Mr. McCaffery's computer wallpaper to a chipmunk, a llama, a watermelon, and a guy with his head stuck.

I broke the candle on the Advent wreath in the office while trying to straighten it.

Writing a note in the 3rd grade.

Spilling Raul's glue in his cubby.

Alma Mater

Hail, Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Alma Mater, hail to thee!
Take our hearts to thee we promise
Honor, love and loyalty.

Mother of Mount Carmel guide us, that in all we do...
To God and Country, home and school,
beneath thy banner we'll be true.

At thy feet beloved Mother, here we lift our eyes to thee!
Knowing that in thy protection
We are safe eternally.

Mother of Mount Carmel guide us, that in all we do...
To God and Country, home and school,
beneath thy banner we'll be true.
